Flag Status: Flagged

List unit as an engine only and as a 400KW 480V Genset we just have to find an loose 480V alternator that we can swap it out with i'm working on getting a cost to increase the horsepower back to its original setting a 503 HP

You should already have the build sheet from what joe pulled this morning for me. it has all the information there including the ratings.

I think we should be able to sell it as an engine only for around $45,000 a genset for around $65-75k

Thank you,

Victor Seropian

We are asking $15,000 but make us an offer. It will be ready to be shipped out tomorrow. It has 510 hours on it and was a back up generator for an airport.
